Respected Speakers for todays International Conference of TiCMEA and distinguished participants for International conference and Call for paper of the 2nd TiCMEA

Welcome to 2nd TICMEA International Conference and Call fof Papers

On behalf of the Faculty of Economics and Business at Universitas Tanjungpura, it is my utmost pleasure to welcome you to the 2nd Tanjungpura International Conference on Management, Economics, and Accounting (TICMEA). Under the theme "Sustainability and Resiliency in Achieving Economic Stability," this conference serves as a crucial platform for scholars, researchers, and practitioners to delve into pressing issues surrounding economic stability in today's dynamic global landscape.

As we gather here today, the importance of sustainability and resiliency in achieving economic stability cannot be overstated. The world is facing unprecedented challenges, from the ongoing economic crisis to environmental degradation and socio-economic disparities. In the face of such complexities, it is imperative for us to explore innovative strategies and solutions that can foster sustainable economic growth while enhancing our resilience to external shocks.

Through rigorous research, insightful discussions, and collaborative efforts, I am confident that this conference will yield valuable insights and actionable recommendations that can inform policy-making and drive positive change. By harnessing the collective expertise and experiences of our esteemed participants, we can chart a course towards a more sustainable, inclusive, and resilient future.

I extend my deepest gratitude to all the participants, presenters, sponsors, and organizers for their invaluable contributions to this conference. Let us seize this opportunity to engage in meaningful dialogue, forge new connections, and inspire transformative ideas that will shape the future of our economies and societies.

Thank you, and I wish you all a fruitful and enriching conference experience.

Warm regards,

Dr. Barkah, SE. M.Si

Dean Faculty of Economics and Business Universitas Tanjungpura

WELCOMING REMARKS

CHAIR OF 2nd TANJUNGPURA INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON MANAGEMENT, ECONOMICS, AND BUSINESS

Ladies and Gentlemen,

It is my honor and privilege to welcome you all to the 2nd Tanjungpura International Conference on Management, Economics, and Accounting (TICMEA). Under the timely and pertinent theme of "Sustainability and Resiliency in Achieving Economic Stability," this conference promises to be a forum for insightful discussions, knowledge sharing, and collaborative endeavors.

In today's rapidly changing global landscape, the pursuit of economic stability is more critical than ever. However, achieving this stability requires a multifaceted approach that encompasses sustainability and resiliency. We must not only strive for economic growth but also ensure that our actions are sustainable, minimizing adverse impacts on the environment and society. Additionally, building resilience within our economies is essential to withstand unforeseen challenges and shocks, such as the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic.

Throughout this conference, we have the opportunity to explore innovative ideas, best practices, and research findings that can contribute to our collective understanding of sustainability and resiliency in economic stability. By bringing together scholars, researchers, practitioners, and policymakers from around the world, we can foster meaningful dialogue and generate actionable insights that have the potential to shape policy decisions and drive positive change.

I would like to express my sincere gratitude to all the participants, presenters, sponsors, and organizers who have contributed to the success of this conference. Your dedication and commitment to advancing knowledge and addressing pressing issues are truly commendable.

As we embark on this intellectual journey together, I encourage you to actively participate, engage in fruitful discussions, and forge new connections. Let us seize this opportunity to collaborate and chart a course towards a more sustainable, resilient, and prosperous future for all.

Thank you, and I wish you all a productive and enriching conference experience.

Best regards,

Dr. Helma Malini

Chair 2nd TICMEA
